NEWS OF THE TERRITORY

Summary of Past Week's Happenings Over the Territory of Arizona, Bor.

Furniture in the pest house at Tucson was stolen recently.

Sir Gilbert Parker, the English novelist, says he is in love with Arizona.

Arizona ranks fifth in size and forty-sixth in point of population among the states of the union.

Conductor John McCormick, an old time railroad man, was killed at Yampai, Arizona, last Sunday.

Federal court started forty-eight years ago and was adjourned permanently at Tucson last Tuesday.

George Kirkland of Phoenix has been appointed special deputy collector of internal revenue for the state of Arizona.

Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of Arizona Elks at their first reunion to be held in Tucson March 21 and 22.

A negro recently sentenced at Ash Fork for a misdemeanor, announced when put in jail at Prescott, that it was his 89th trip to jail.

W. H. Buck, superintendent of motive power of the Santa Fe, died in his official car last week of pneumonia while on his way to San Bernardino to the hospital.

A. W. Ballard, head of the Pacific Gas and Electric company at Phoenix, committed suicide last week, Thursday, by shooting himself through the heart. He was despondent on account of ill health.

Hundreds of dollars worth of stolen property was recovered in Phoenix last week, following the arrest of a Mexican. His home was found to be a veritable cache, the plunder ranging from silks and satins to fancy shoes.

D. Townsend, a mining man of McCabe, was found dead with a bullet wound in his head in a cabin on his claim Saturday. All indications pointed to suicide. He was the son of John Townsend, famous as an Indian fighter in the early days of Arizona.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES

The Normal had a half holiday the afternoon of Feb. 14, it being admission day of the great, new state of Arizona.

The Coconino Literary Society will hold its usual meeting tomorrow (Saturday) evening, Feb. 17. Admission, ten cents. One of the principal features on the program is the original story, "The Giant's Secret." It is a story of the origin of the "Baby's Face" on the peaks of which every native of Flagstaff is familiar.

Reflections of A Bachelor

Good advice for everybody is never to give it to anybody.

People get into a lot of big trouble trying to lie out of a little one.

A man gets along so well with an ole pipe because it never talks back.

Generally, the man who sneers at the hayseeds quit being one himself only the other day.

A man nearly always thinks his good appetite is because his advice to his wife about running the house is so valuable.

The shortage of cattle on the markets seems to send the prices higher, but the shortage of feed and a drouth do not lower the market value to any extent.
